PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Business Administration senior at Fu Jen Catholic University, with a minor in Financial and Economic Law, along with Business Taxation Credit Program; expected to graduate in Dec 2026. As a member of HR Friday 5th High-Potential Program, I completed a year-long development program covering recruitment, talent development, employee management, retention, labor regulations, digital recruitment, and employer branding.

Experienced in HR operations, recruitment, training, event coordination, and project coordination, with strengths in needs analysis, information integration, stakeholder communication, execution, and progress tracking. I value accuracy, process integrity, and efficiency, and approach tasks by clarifying objectives and the current state, organizing information, and identifying practical improvements.

Skilled in digital productivity tools, generative AI, and basic visual and video content creation, with foundational knowledge of RPA and automation. I apply digital tools to research, information processing, and repetitive tasks to improve efficiency and workflow quality while delivering reliable, high-quality results.
